THE QUAKER - 1966

GUILFORD COLLEGE

Greensboro, N. C.

Susan Belk - editor

Jim Trollinger - business manager

a time of transition
as confronted by new ideas,
diversified personalities,
and unfamiliar situations.

some progress
neither intellectually nor spiritually, several stop to ask
what it all means,
and a few

sincerely try to find the answers.

too easy to fall into a rut involving tests . . . cramming . . . tests and pressure to make those grades, a time when learning, evaluating, and interpreting become meaningless words.

A TIME OF TRANSITION

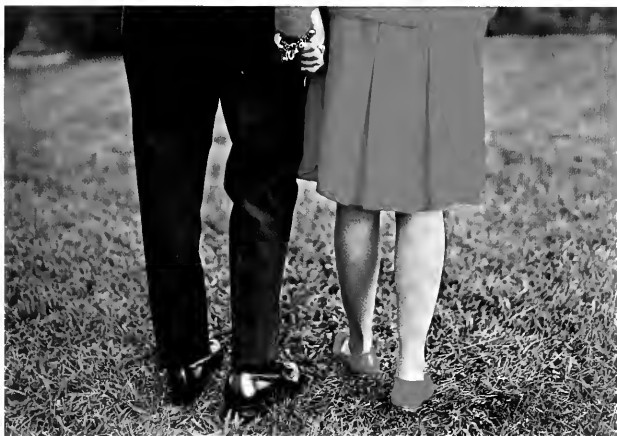

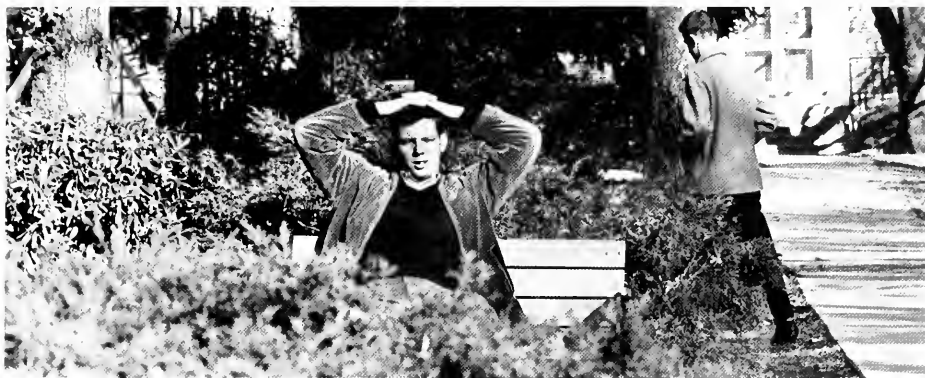

of Enrichment	10
of Instruction	32
of Fulfillment	72
of Action	118
of Fellowship	154

but our encounters here become a part of us,
not to be pushed aside or deemed unimportant:
the joy experienced through involved study
when learning supplants memorization;
the rewarding relationships developed between faculty and students when an exchange of ideas takes place and the professor becomes friend
as well as teacher,
when we realize and accept our responsibility to the professor and to ourselves rather than blaming him

for our own shortcomings and indolence;
the intimate friendships formed through athletic participation, through dating, and through dorm life;
the wonderful experience
of having at least one friend with whom no barriers exist and no pretensions are made.

all of these relationships are a part
of our transition,
a part
of our searching
when we open our eyes
and examine,
unafraid to see,
unafraid to feel.

a realization
of the importance
of a goal
that incorporates all
of one's being
and around which
all is directed,
a goal demanding
that one strive
to reach his
highest potentials
through
a continuing growth
and transition.

A TIME OF ENRICHMENT

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

trying to identify the people.
what do you mean the deadline is tomorrow?
haven't even started writing copy.
an effort to portray Guilford as it is
and as it hopes to be,
trying to interpret school life
not just record it,
knowing that some won't understand won't approve
but hoping to make students think
and to question
anything but mere acceptance or indifference.
finally finishing the work
waiting for copies to be delivered hoping to find highest expectations fulfilled.

A TIME OF ACTION

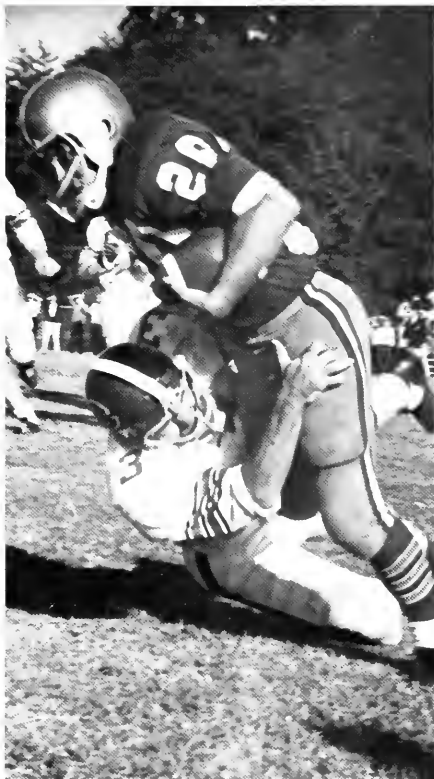

FOOTBALL

last year won more than three previous result: coach of year, John Stewart this year doubled those wins 8-2 not coach of year, should have been.
he said we'd be great and were.
once wee Guilford, now powerhouse next year must prove might bet we do
in case you forgot, remember these:
humbled arch-rival Elon 7-0 late field goal. Western squeezes by 9-7 Bridgewater doesn't want to see us again
we won 56-6
best efforts, one of many Catawba beaten too, 10-3
final note of season, preview next year Emory and Henry on lower end 34-0.

fall and the beginning of BASKETBALL
 full conference schedule optimism high for Steelemen.
 young team—only one senior many victories—some disappointments finish—3rd—best ever!
 big wins over
 Quinn's Lizards
 Logan and the Catamounts.
 undefeated at home
 away nets six losses.
 palming, walking, three second lane,
 fouling—have been costly hindered consistent effort.
 first five
 Scott, Kauffman, Loftus, Young, Bregard
 most well-rounded team in conference.
 Fellers, Brooks, Gaylord, Motsinger
 all much improved.
 great support!
 injuries plagued Kauffman, Young, Loftus.
 some think "big" Bob has reached peak.
 wait till next year
 sky's his limit.
 Chuck will be missed—most underrated.
 freshman Bregard—talent for future.

record: 16 wins; 6 losses conference tourney
hopes high
after final game
with Pfeiffer
ran them out of our gym.
opening game with Catawba couldn't find ball or basket lost.

District 26 seat available
if Lizards or Catamounts win.
imagine pulling for the Lizards
now they might wish they had lost.

Assistant Coach—John E. Jensen

first round of District 26 Quakes embarrass Quinn
in his own gym
win 73-70
next night:
beat Erskine for District Title
Steele and his boys
"just tickled to death!"
best team ever
Kansas City
here we come!!
next year we'll go further.
till then
we're No. 1.

a winning year makes cheering much easier
and oftentimes a thankless job.
hours spent in practice, riding to out-of-town games and yelling Go . . . Go . . . Go.
sometimes the problem of whom to watch and of which cheer to do next knowing the crowd likes about three of them.
making that sometimes shaky pyramid
and helping to find Chuck's contacts,
and watching eligibility; grades still count.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders — Gail Schoolfield, Pam Moser, Judy Murray, June Tuttle - Joan Schaefer, Gail Williams, Nancy Merritt - Meha Cole.

young team
much talent 12 wins, 11 losses.
just missed conference playoffs.
home game advantage
must be something to it lost only one at home, ten on road.
many early leads
many long late innings.
you guessed it, blew some leads.
next year, watch out!
plenty of pitchers
everything else
more timely hitting
a conference contender.
new field, mighty nice.
fence, dugouts
bleachers.
slide safe, no, you're out!
missed the sign, not again strike one, two, three—out.
gosh, that guy's good
let's go guys, last time up.
hit that screwball pitcher!
wait till next year
more depth, transfers more consistency straight to the top, wait and see.

the tee off
that's where we begin
sometimes where we end
there are fairways too
birdies, par, bogie, double bogie season's record — broke about even lose much of team
future in doubt
bleakest of varsity sports.

TRACK

long, long season
no wins
not even a tie.
what else, no one comes out.
most events —
our one man, their three,
maybe four.
field events, good shotput, discus, etc.
too bad have to run too.
next year football backfield means runners, dashers, distance men prospects great (look at their records.)

can't get inside, too many of them.
handoff missed
timing off
false start, not again!
only entry, that's you.
talent helps.
next season be there!
that means both parties
participants and fans
latter means students, it really helps.
there's one
no, only a bird watcher.

TENNIS

Tennis Team:
John Ward
Jim Otwell
Rudy Gordh
Jim Hunt
Walt Gromada

Tennis
hopeful team . . . peak never reached tough schedule . . . Davidson and East Carolina.
the top two men were many times great.
temperaments hurt some key times.
anticipated depth shallow at times.
like other sports . . . prospects were great.
good weather means better courts.
net ball!
on the line . . . where's the line?
over here, my point again.
double faults . . . poor lobs . . . no passes points hard to come.
next year experience, depth.
record will be better.

closest thing
to a coffee shop,
yet atmosphere
somehow lacking.
social life exists
for those with cars
or steady dates.
for some Greensboro offers movies,
the Jokers,
Ham's,
the Barn and the Showboat.
a situation
of which all complain.
a shortcoming
which can be overcome
if students and administration accept responsibility.

SOCIAL LIFE

Homecoming
plans
floats and dorm decorations
hours and hours of work.
Friday night and a marvelous performance
by the Platters,
memories of "The Great Pretender"
"Twilight Time"
"Remember When."
madly stuffing kleenex in the chicken wire at 3.00 a. m. Saturday morning, building "Fort Stewart"
in Hobb's back-yard,
watching the sun rise
while sleepily setting up
floats and decorations,
then yawning and dozing
during classes
which must go on.

Homecoming Court—Bede Walker, Nancy Merriitt, Meha Cole, Donna Newman, Dottie Alley.

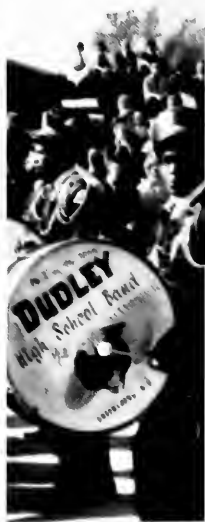

Saturday afternoon
parade, floats,
homecoming court,
band and bagpipers
with a unique version of "Unchained Melody."
the Day Hop's float
and its schmo-kicking Quaker.
autumn leaves
bright, warm sun
crisp, cool air
colors—oranges, yellows and reds.
crowds of people tense with excitement
a day filled with eager anticipation.

Homecoming Queen - Dottie Alley

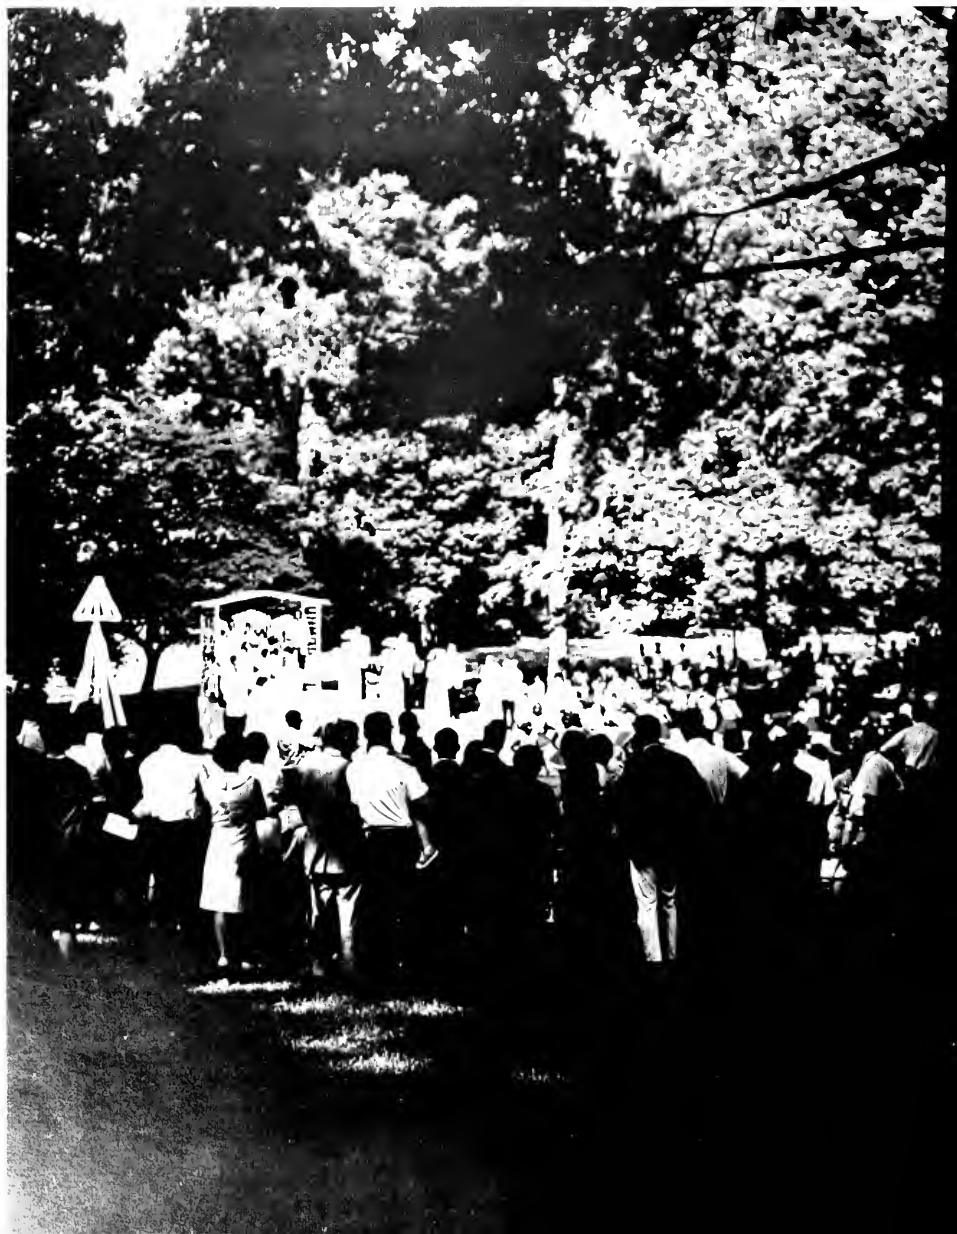

Quakers vs. Newberry Indians.
alumni returning, greeting other alumni.
a good game . . . cheering . . . halftime President Hobbs crowning Dottie Alley queen, trophies for best floats and dorm decorations, open house—yearly shifting of dust and readjustment of “decorative”
and treasured possessions,
playing host or hostess to friends, etc.
Saturday night—semiformal dance,
not too tired to drag around dance floor.
late permissions till 12:00!!
Sunday morning hangovers.
a big weekend,
memories for present and past Guilfordians.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas at Guilford
a flurry of red bows
white paper
Christmas cards.
a walk in the woods to find the biggest Christmas tree ever.
a candy bar and a balloon
from Secret Santa.
Christmas carols
played on the piano in the parlor,
a visit from Santa himself.
the mad rush of last-minute shopping, decorations: candles, holly
red balls for the tree
mistletoe.
the barrage of last-minute tests,
nativity scenes
the smell of fresh pine and cedar Christmas dance and queen
last-minute parties and suitcase stuffing, out for vacation!

May Day
 weeks of preparation
 and practice;
 skating
 marching
 winding the maypole
 playing leaves
 sewing.
 the annual floating
 of the maypole
 the night before.
 late permissions
 for the Friday night concert,
 the four-hour wait
 for Mary Wells.
 Saturday morning
 5:30 a.m.
 girls huddled on porches
 wrapped in blankets
 waiting . . .
 boys running around
 in saggy,
 makeshift diapers.
 the Men's May Day skits
 a big farce!
 then classes (love it!)

1966 MAY COURT

Saturday afternoon
the May court
and finally the queen!
the dancing on the green

The Seasons

marching in red, white, and blue
(for the Fourth of July)

"Autumn Leaves"

with those lovely tree-like costumes skaters sliding around in red taffeta and finally the little girls in the traditional maypole dance.

then the big dance

the only formal dance of the year

Everything's Coming Up Roses

with Burt Smith and the Mellotones
the perfect finale.

DORM LIFE

record players
telephone, laughter
radios
study, study, study
learn to concentrate
above the roar,
read, read, read
tests, reports, speeches, term papers.
getting up at 9:25 for that 9:30 class—oops!

attempting to write a thesis in one week.
tinting hair, borrowing clothes,
trying out make-up
writing letters, waiting for phone calls listening for a buzz.
talking till early morning:
grades, clothes,
boys, professors,
same ol' criticisms of Guilford.

a book in one hand
a cigarette in the other 3 a. m.
and a test tomorrow.
clothes
and curlers thrown around.
gotta clean up!
birthday parties and showers:
refreshments, noise, fun.
the sharing of hopes and disappointments,
joys and tears.
developing friendships that last a lifetime.

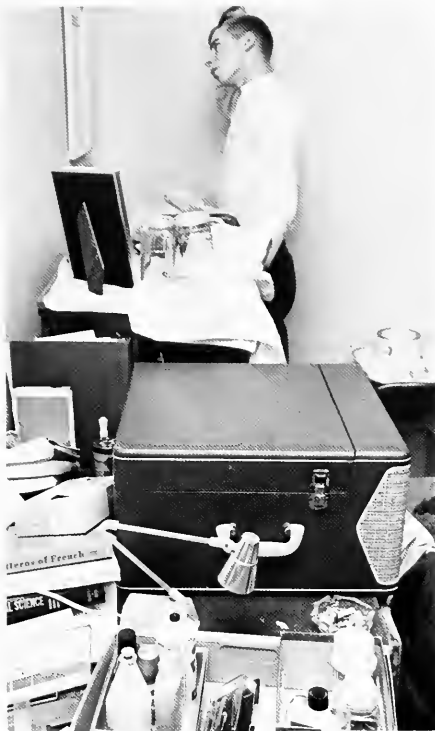

DORM LIFE

Men's dorm life
industrious
illustrious are we,
quiet hours
rigidly adhered to!
always on weekends,
nobody here,
drink machine out again
no—don't hit it!
let's raid "fats"
he's got a refrigerator.

can you play ball
in the next hall?
I've got a test tomorrow
but want to finish
this bridge game.
opening count—Goren who?
professor will understand
he plays too.

let's talk in his room.
wow!
what pin-ups
my January, June and July.
girl in the dorm—
not my room—
honest!
the Clancy era
could we take another?
hallways make better ashtrays.
fire
water
always one in the hall.
better hit the hooks
did you see
the eligibility list?
glad I'm a veteran.
amazing how studious
some can get
when they're 1-A.

A TIME OF TRANSITION

the closing paragraphs
are for you to write
since only you can ask
and attempt to answer
where am I going now?
what have they all meant to me:
studies?
friendships?
socials?
discussions?
plans?
dreams?
beliefs?

growing and learning
do not terminate with graduation,
and though one's beliefs
are more definite
and many questions
are partially answered,
the transition
should continue for years to come,
as one strives
to make his life have meaning
for himself and others.
